

State	License Process	Driver's Ed	Foster Youth	Insurance Specifics
Rhode Island	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Limited Instructional Permit: A Rhode Island drivers permit can be issued to any Rhode Island resident who is 16 but less than 18 years of age, and has completed the 33-hour driver	Driver's Ed is designed for high school students, ages 15 years and 10 months through 19 years. Successful completion of this course earns a certificate that students may present to the DMV for a Drivers Permit.	None at this time If it's requested practice shows that this would be supported.	N/A

	education course certified by the Community College of Rhode Island. This permit is valid for one year or until the applicant turns 18, whichever is greater. A road test may not be given until the permit is held for six months <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A parent, legal guardian, licensed foster parent or adult spouse must be present to sign the permit application. A parent, legal guardian or foster parent must show identification. Legal guardian or licensed foster parent must show documentation to verify their authorization. Limited Provisional License: you must have held the Limited Instructional 	Courses are offered at most high schools, CCRI's four campus locations, and various locations throughout the state. Cost $110* Textbook is an additional $19.95 includes $10 non-refundable registration fee Time Commitment 33 hours Schedule varies by course In addition, youth must complete a minimum of 50 hours of driving experience with a supervising driver with 10 of those hours at night. Road test: $27.50 Permit (Under 18): $12.50 License under 18: $27.50 Permit (18+): $7.50 First License after passing: $39.50 Have to renew your license
--	--	---	--	--

	Permit for at least 6 months and not been convicted of a motor vehicle violation during that period. You must also present an affidavit signed by a parent or guardian stating that you have completed a minimum of 50 hours of driving experience with a supervising driver with 10 of those hours at night. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Full Operator's License: you must be 17 years old but less than 18 years old, held a Limited Provisional License for at least 12 months, and not been convicted of a motor vehicle violation during the preceding 6 months.• Any Rhode Island resident 18 years or older who has have never been	2 years (or 18th birthday whichever comes first) after obtaining it for the first time regardless of age
--	---	--	--	--

	issued a Rhode Island driver's license or if the license has been expired for more than five years, must apply for a driving instruction permit by taking the computerized knowledge exam. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Driver's education is not required to receive a permit.• They must have their Learner's Permit for at least 30 days prior to their first scheduled road test.			